Terry was born in Toronto Canada and spent most of his life there. At age 18 he left and joined the US Navy serving five years. He returned to Toronto due to his mother's illness.

Terry has volunteered at Oasis for 4 yrs before coming on staff. He always likes to tell people how much Oasis is like a family, and how much God works there.

Terry has received his food handler, Crisis Intervention certificates, as well attending a number of different workshops held by Daily Bread. Some of the topics included immigration, legal issues, homelessness and dietary concerns of food bank clients.

Terry enjoys reading, cooking, and is into history. He also likes to go for long walks.
